"New Bass Singer Introduced!"

The Southern Plainsmen are happy to announce the addition of Mike Burkhalter of Appleby, Texas, to the position of bass singer.

Mike is a lifelong resident of the Garrison/Nacogdoches, Texas area. He presently resides in Appleby with his wife, Vicky and daughter, Amber, 18. Amber is a student at Stephen F. Austin University. Mike and Vicky have two adult sons, Chase, 24, and Tyler, 21.

Mike has been active in church music all his life and traveled for a few years with his brother in an acappella quartet. We are excited to have Mike with us and know you will enjoy meeting and hearing him!

We want to thank Tracy Crouch, formerly of The Dixie Echoes, and Steve Hanley, our former bass singer, for filling the bass spot since June while we were searching for a permanent bass singer. Both did a fabulous job and renewed old friendships and made some new ones. We hope their fans will stay in touch with both them and us! Both guys are true professionals and a joy with which to work!
