"New Lead Singer Introduced!"

Following the resignation of Tim Crosby, last month, The Southern Plainsmen are thrilled to announce that Jordan Mothershed of DeQuincy, Louisiana has accepted the position of lead singer! Jordan is the 21 year-old son of Kevin and Marla Mothershed and a student at McNeese State University in Lake Charles, LA. He and his Dad, a talented bass-singer, have composed one-half of The Christway Quartet of Southwest Louisiana for some time.

He has been privileged to travel fairly extensively, attending Southern Gospel Concerts for many years and has collected photos, autographs, LPs, and memorabilia of some of the greats. He is a true Southern Gospel Quartet Guy! You are sure to enjoy this talented Christian, young man! Come out and meet him!

We wish Tim and Family all the best as he enjoys a much needed rest and spends time with Mrs. Mary Crosby, his Mother who is ailing with cancer. Please keep her in your prayers! He has told us that you will be seeing and hearing him again as he embarks on a new, but limited ministry at a future date.
